

SASKATCHEWAN SPECIES AT RISK FARM PROGRAM

Join us for a workshop to learn about species at risk on your land. The workshop provides a workbook and guidance to develop a personalized Species at Risk Action Plan.

The program is voluntary, free, and the information in your plan is 100% confidential.

Producers with completed Species at Risk Action Plans are eligible to apply for Species at Risk Stewardship Program Funding that covers 100% of project costs!

For more details, visit:
www.simplyag.ca or call 1-866-298-7222

The Saskatchewan Species at Risk Farm Program Workshop

is coming to Watrous!

Free Workshop

Date & Time:

Monday, February 26th
9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Location:

Heritage Room
Town Office
Watrous, SK

Minimum 5 participants required, Maximum 10.

For more information or to register, please contact:

Morgan Leigh

Cell: (306) 921-6631

E-mail: duleigh@sasktel.net